Dr. Elmon Krupnik serves as Chief of the Chaplain Service at the Department of Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Phoenix, Arizona. Ordained and endorsed by the Evangelical Church Alliance, he also serves on its board and is Chairman of the Military Chaplain Commission. Chaplain Krupnik is the State Chaplain (with the rank of Colonel) for the New Mexico National Guard. Dr. Krupnik holds a Ph.D. in Education from Capella University, an M.Div. from Midwestern Baptist Theological Seminary, and a B.A. in History from the University of Minnesota. In addition, he has completed graduate coursework for an M.A. in History from Xavier University. His military education includes completion of Senior Service College by the Department of Army, U.S. Air Force Air War College, Marine Corps Command and General Staff College, and the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College (all by correspondence). Dr. Krupnik serves as an adjunct faculty member for the Marine Corps University and at various community colleges in the areas of history, religion, philosophy, psychology, and sociology. He also authored a devotional book, "The Sole Balm." Chaplain Krupnik has been married to his wife, Lynn, a practicing attorney, for 37 years. They have four children and 14 grandchildren.

Revs. Randy and Marli Brown have been married for 30 years and have served in music ministry for just as long. Both Randy and Marli graduated from William Tyndale College and are ordained with the Evangelical Church Alliance. Randy and Marli Ministries, their concert and speaking ministry, takes them throughout the United States and Canada, ministering to churches in all evangelical denominations. Randy, an accomplished pianist and songwriter, grew up in Cleveland, Ohio and holds a Bachelor of Music in Piano Performance and Music Composition. He also serves on the ECA Board of Directors. Marli grew up in Brighton, Michigan and has a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology. She is the author of "Ridin' Shotgun", which recounts their family's journey of living on the road in an RV for eight years. She is also a sought after women's speaker. Randy and Marli make their home in Grand Rapids, Michigan, with their children, Kennedie and Kadison, who play and sing with them as well. Kennedie, a student at Moody Bible Institute, is a singer/songwriter, and Kadison, a freshman at Northpoint Bible College in Grand Rapids, plays the ukulele and classical guitar. Together, the Brown family desires to encourage the church to repent and remain faithful to the Lord while waiting for His return.
